

Numbers! What good does it do to keep a record of attendance, giving, outreach and benevolent giving? Well, numbers can help us paint a self-portrait. Every Tuesday I enter into the Vital Signs report in the computer our "numbers." These numbers help us to see how we are doing in our efforts to "be the church." Here is a summary of our numbers for 1/1/15 to 9/14/15.

	Average	Total
Attendance average:	311.42	10,900
Professions of faith:	0.36	8
Small Groups:	23.11	832
Small Group Participation:	173	6,221
Mission Outreach	127	4,575
Benevolent/Charitable Giving:	$2,502	$ 30,032
Offering received Local Church Ministry:	$8,458	$296,040

As you look at the numbers you can see what our average worship attendance is, and how many individuals participate in the small groups here at Saint Paul, and are involved in outreach ministry. The Benevolent and Charitable giving is the amount we give to Mission Shares and other ministries beyond our walls. And the offering is what we give to support the work and ministry of Saint Paul U. M.C. This is a portrait of a vital church. But our portraits can show us some areas where we need to "touch up" the portrait. For example our average giving (# 6 & 7 above) is $10,960 and we need $13,116. This portrait shows us an area that needs our attention.

The weekend of October 24 & 25, we are being asked by our Stewardship and Finance Committee to prayerfully consider our financial commitment for 2016. We are a vital congregation with numerous ministries that touch the lives of thousand's every year! We have a history as a community oriented congregation, with a strong outreach to children with our childcare and preschool. We have helped organize and support the Benson Area Refugee Task Force, and work with other churches and organizations of our community. We have an alive Sunday School for all ages, and a vibrant youth program. The music ministry touches our souls and reaches out to the community. We have a bright future! God is calling us into avenues of ministry that are exciting!

Grace and Peace,
Dr. Keith W. Johnson, Lead Pastor

Our Apple Trees Have Given Us a Bumper Crop!

Those who picked from the trees (as of 9/21/15) gave to support the ministry of Saint Paul U.M.C.

Our financial secretary put together a "puzzle" for us to discover how much was given. Here is the key to use:

- Bushel = $1,000
- Peck = $200 – $300 (Average $212.50)
- Gallon = $50 – $150 (Average $74.78)
- Quart = $20 – $40 (Average $25.21)
- Pint = $2 – $15 (Average $8.73)

THE APPLE CROP

What is the total market value?

(Use averages to figure pecks, gallons, quarts, & pints)

3- Bushels	$_____
8- Pecks	$_____
23- Gallons	$_____
48- Quarts	$_____
33- Pints	$_____
Total	$_____

"Earn all you can.

Give all you can."

Rev. John Wesley

Fall is here and students have returned to their schedules of learning. As United Methodists we join Christians around the world in the annual observance of World Communion, celebrated October 03/04. On World Communion Sunday our communal offering helps to provide scholarships for national and international graduate students whom God has gifted to learn and to serve. We welcome the Solid Brass ensemble back with us at the 8:15 and 11:05 services and David Schack, guest organist, at the 11:05 service.

The Children's Ministries annual presentation of Bibles to our third graders will happen at all services the week-end of October 10/11. The Chancel and Folk Gospel Choirs will join the choir of Rockbrook United Methodist Church for a joint musical offering in our Sanctuary on Sunday, October 11 at the 11:05 service and again at Rockbrook on Sunday, October 18 at their 10:45 service. The exchange will also be happening from the pulpit with the Rev. William Williams offering a special message at Saint Paul and Dr. Johnson preaching at Rockbrook. The choirs will be under the direction of Paul Susemihl, Rockbrook's longtime choral director, and accompanied by Jerry Brabec.

We honor the gifts of the laity as part of weekend worship October 17/18 and, while the choirs and Dr. Johnson are out, there will be dueling Marta's at Saint Paul! The Rev. Marta Wheeler will be preaching at 9:35 and 11:05 and will be joined for both services by guest soloist, Marta Brabec. David Schack will serve as guest organist at the 11:05 service.

The M & M service on October 21 continues to feature personal testimonies reminding us of "how Saint Paul has helped my spiritual journey." We celebrate the mid-month observance of Holy Communion with a variety of lay speakers and musicians.

The last weekend of October 24/25, our services will reflect the theme of stewardship with a special time for the dedication of our gifts, tithes and pledges.

The sixth single-Sunday-service will be celebrated as part of our All Saints remembrance weekend, November 01 at 10:00 a.m. in the Sanctuary.

Preschool Goes to the Rose Theater

Saint Paul UMC Preschool went to see "Pete the Cat" at the Rose Theater. One group went on Wednesday, September 23, and the other group went on Friday, September 25.

The children had been reading "Pete the Cat" books, so it was exciting for them to see him "in person."

The Preschool would like to say a special "thank you" to Jerry Brabec for the opportunity to see "Pete the Cat."

A Conversation about Poverty in our Community

First UMC and Clair Memorial UMC are co-sponsoring an event to raise awareness of challenges and opportunities of people struggling in poverty in our community, and to identify concrete action steps people of faith can take to "Bring Forth the Kingdom." The date is Saturday, October 17, from 8:00 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. at First United Methodist Church. Check-in and healthy snacks will be from 8:00-8:30, with the program from 8:30-12:15. There is no fee to participate, but your advance registration helps with their planning. You can register online at fumcomaha.org/BringingForthTheKingdom.php.

Crop Walk - Plan to Walk or Support a Walker

The Mercy & Justice Team encourage you to sign up for the 32nd annual Church World Service CROP Walk. The October 11 event will begin at Luther Memorial Church (61st & Western) and includes Saint Paul as a watering station. You can join in the walk, or you can support a walker. If you choose to walk, there are 1, 2.5 and 5 mile routes through the Dundee/Memorial Park and Country Club neighborhoods. You choose how far.

25% of the funds raised by the 2015 Omaha CROP Hunger Walk will be donated to the Open Door Mission, Siena/Francis House and Stephen Center homeless shelters.

Community Conversation

The St. Paul UMC Mercy and Justice Committee will hold a Listening Session to identify the issues that affect the families of our congregations and community. It will be held October 18th from 1 to 2:30 pm in Fellowship Hall. This gathering will enable you to share what you are concerned about in our neighborhoods, city, county and state. Please attend this meeting and express your thoughts and feelings about important justice issues in our community. Contact Lane Sidebottom at 402-572-8558 or lanesideb@cox.net for more information.

Trip to Lydia Patterson Institute in El Paso

Lydia Patterson Institute is a mission project of our South Central Jurisdiction. Located in El Paso, Texas, it serves Hispanic youth in that city and from Juarez, Mexico. LPI is engaged in a capital campaign to renovate and expand its campus and its leaders have asked us to participate. We have set a goal of raising $100,000 by next June. According to Bishop Scott Jones, Lydia Patterson is the best United Methodist agency developing Hispanic leaders for the future. It deserves our support.

Bishop Jones is inviting those who are interested in learning more about LPI to join him on a visit to the school. Participants will travel on Monday and Wednesday, January 25 and 27, 2016, and will spend Tuesday, January 26, on the LPI campus. Participants would be responsible for air fare into El Paso, meals en route, and the hotel room. You will be staying at the Doubletree for $100 per night plus tax for each room. (If participants share a room, it would be $50 per person plus tax). If you are interested in learning more and coordinating travel arrangements, please notify Julie Kohr in the Bishop's office.

Learn, Serve, Play, Pray

Saint Paul Youth meet weekly at The Roof and all 7-12th grade youth and friends are invited to come in the doors near the chapel and ascend to the youth room on the 4th floor. In addition to the following events we will also be studying some of our ancestors of the Old Testament times and how they relate to our lives today. This is a humorous study and questions are encouraged.

Oct. 4th will be your chance to show off your culinary skills as chili, sandwiches, and cupcakes are prepared for homeless teens served by Youth Emergency Services. We will meet from 5-6:30 pm.

Wear your walking shoes as we walk 2.5 miles for the CROP Walk on Oct. 11th at 1 pm. Let's meet at Luther Memorial Lutheran Church at 1:30 pm and plan to raise funds to eliminate hunger together!

Put on your creative mind as we set up for the haunted house Sunday, Oct. 18th, 5-6:30pm.

Sunday, Oct. 25th, the long-awaited haunted house will be operating from 1-4pm. This haunted house will be appropriate for ages 10 and up. $3 suggested donation will be used to fund the meals provided to Y.E.S.

I am grateful for the youth of St. Paul! Their energy, God-given gifts, and growing faith inspire me.

Rev. Marta Wheeler, youth pastor

Upcoming Events for Saint Paul's Children's Ministries

Please plan to join us for the following events:

1. Camp Fontanelle Pumpkin Patch and Corn Maze on Saturday, October 10, from 1-4:00 p.m. We will be hosting a firepit, tackling the Corn Maze at 2:00 p.m., followed by a feast of hotdogs, chips and s'mores. Please provide your choice of drinks. Attractions include jumping pillows, petting barn, corn pit, 700 feet of zip lines, and much more. Additional information available at www.campfontanelle.com.
2. Bibles will be presented to all of our third graders at the following services: Saturday, October 10, 5:00 p.m., and Sunday, October 11, at 9:35 and 11:05 a.m. Please advise via email the children's names and service planning to attend to receive their Bible.
3. Saint Paul's own Fall Festival to be held Sunday, October 25, from 1-5:00 p.m. Children's Ministries will have games and pumpkin painting for the kids in Wesley Hall, while our Saint Paul Youth will host a haunted house located on the "roof". Dinner will be provided.

Please R.S.V.P. to allow for all appropriate planning.

We always welcome any help, ideas, suggestions and especially volunteers to enrich our programs and activities for our children. For any additional questions, comments or concerns, please contact Stephanie at srosenberger@stpaulomaha.org.

Building for the future! Our annual Church Conference!

Members of our Nominations, Stewardship & Finance, Next Steps Team, Staff Parish Relations Committee and Church Council have been doing their part to prepare the agenda items for the annual Church Conference that will be held October 25, 6:00 p.m. The Church Conference will be held at the Maplewood United Methodist Church. We will meet with members of the Maplewood, Olive Crest, Clair Memorial and Tri-Community United Methodist Churches.

This annual Church Conference is an important meeting at which we will build the structure for our 2016 ministry. We will take time to review and celebrate what we have done in 2015, and what we feel God is calling us to do in 2016. The members who attend will vote on financial support for the all the staff, we will approve our 2016 vision statement, elect our lay leadership for the administrative committees, and receive and act upon our membership audit. We need your support and vote at this all Church Conference. Help us build the structure for our 2016 ministry here at Saint Paul Church!

Stewardship

Thanksgiving Day

Here is a question intended to make you think: On Thanksgiving Day, would you prefer to be among those who need help, including having a wonderful meal, or would you rather be someone who provides help, not only serving the meal, but also in other ways that meet human needs?

Of course that is a no-brainer, isn't it? Any right-minded person would want to be a helper/server instead of a poverty-ridden person who is not completely certain of work, food, shelter, health-care or anything else except the burdens of life.

A certain woman of means began thinking about just such stricken people. She examined her well-endowed life and decided to make her way into a slum area to use her brains, physical strength, and her financial resources to ease at least some of the burdens she observed many poor souls were carrying. It was an eye-opener for her, and a great blessing as well.

As she thought about the experience later, she began to urge others to get involved. She said, "I believe all of us can make the world better in tiny gestures that add up to a lot of energy."

Quite true! If it is impossible for us to help someone who needs our physical presence and our aid this Thanksgiving, then we should remember how blessed we are.

And also, we should remember that the poor are always with us and in need of our "tiny" or large gestures to "make the world better." To help them is to help Christ himself. Your pastor can tell you how you can serve in a meaningful way.

Necessity of Sharing

Over a thousand years ago, a saintly Christian made the following comment:

"If a man were given all the material things of the world, all the cattle, lands, lakes, he would be unhappy unless he could share them with someone he loved." St. Aelred

When one thinks about sharing seriously, the likelihood is that one will come to understand that sharing is an absolute necessity. Especially if we are to have good spiritual and mental health. God has made us to give, to share. It is part of loving. It is part of what brings inner joy. It is surely one of the reasons that Jesus said, "It is more blessed to give than to receive" (Acts 20:35). Giving does as much, often even more, for ourselves as it does for the people and good causes we support. Think about that when the offering is taken during worship. Think about that when you have an opportunity to share your God-given resources with legitimate charities or someone who desperately needs a handout and a hand up.

Then enjoy the blessings you will receive in return.

In this month of Thanksgiving, we all should feel the joy of sharing of time, talent, treasure; sharing not only our money, but also some of our time specifically offered to God, and talent, the special things we can do in his name who gave us these special gifts.

Pastor John's musing...

Some of those who have not had previous experience of Christian stewardship may think that it is a financial whip-round; that a target is announced; that the familiar fund-raising thermometer appears outside the church and that when the target has been reached the whole project is dismantled, along with the thermometer, and that they are left in peace until the next financial crisis arises.

Now that type of purely fund-raising activity has its place. Everyone likes a good fete. But these things should not be confused with Christian stewardship, which is something much, much deeper. It is about every department of a Christian life. It is about our need first to respond with thanks to God for all his blessings and then to offer God through Jesus Christ our souls and bodies to be a living sacrifice.

Someone once said there are two ways of looking at life: you can take it for granted or you can take it with gratitude and the choice you make determines your character.

Think of the good things that God has given you and your family; the relative freedom and luxury we enjoy in our country. Giving thanks for what God has given us in life and for what God

His Cup Runneth Over

Gerry is my buddy. He helps out at church by leading the Junior High ministry. Week after week he's there teaching, mentoring, providing a listening ear for struggling teenagers, or just helping out. He runs his own landscaping business so he is free all winter. He spends that time chaperoning weekend retreats and all-night lock-ins in our church gym where the teens can play sports, listen to music, hear a Gospel message and have fun until six a.m. His infectious enthusiasm has inspired other parents to get involved. The teen ministry has grown dramatically because of Gerry's example of sacrifice and sharing.

Gerry's dad wasn't very involved with the family while he was growing up. As a matter of fact, he was very much detached from his children's lives. Gerry has determined that he wants to make a difference in the lives of the teens at our church.

"It's so important for them just to have someone there who cares and listens," he says. "If I can impact one life, it's more than worth it!"

Who knows how many generations to come will be positively affected by one man's stewardship of his time! Might you be another Gerry?

More than Artistic or Musical

Have you ever stopped to consider that talents include many more abilities than merely athletic, artistic or musical? In God's Kingdom, each of us is given a talent according to our ability and the opportunity to use and develop that talent. Jesus does not pass judgment on how many talents we have. He holds us accountable for using the one we have to his glory.

A dormant talent?

Come and discover that talent which may be lying dormant within you or which you may be using every day but because it isn't a painting you can display for everyone to see, you may believe that you don't have any talent.

Outside the church

God does not require our talents to be used necessarily in the church. A candy-striper in the hallways of a local hospital sharing her talent of giving comfort and hope to burn victims is certainly glorifying God with her talent as much as a Sunday School teacher who loves the children in her class. ☩

Cheerful Steward?

I've tithed for most of my Christian life. It's a blessing to be able to contribute to the work of the Lord. Yet recently God showed me I'm not a cheerful giver. I write the check, but not with the right attitude, I look at it more as an expense, a bill to pay, rather than a privilege to give thanks for. God doesn't need my money. God could get it anywhere he chooses. Yet he gives me the opportunity to partner with him in doing his will on earth. When I pay my tithe begrudgingly, it's just like my wife getting me a birthday gift because she has to. If she doesn't enjoy doing it and would rather skip the event altogether, I take no pleasure in opening the gift. It was given under compulsion, not freely. A gift shows our appreciation for the other person. It conveys we value them highly. If it's a chore for me to give, there's something wrong with my heart. I've forgotten who it rightly belongs to. Money doesn't truly belong to me. Like everything else, it's on loan. I want to joyfully give it back! ☩

"Charge them to do good, to be rich in good works and generous, sharing what they have." 1 Timothy 6:18

May Timothy's letter move us to better see how we are using all that the Lord has entrusted to us; our income, our talents. This sense of stewardship will help us grow in faith and concern one for another. That's what faith community is all about.

On Thanksgiving Day, would you prefer to be among those who need help, including having a wonderful meal, or would you rather be someone who helps serve not only the meal, but also in other ways that meet human needs?

Some of those who...

has done for us through Jesus Christ is a starting point. And then comes our response.

We are invited to offer back to God ourselves, including our time, abilities and our money.

As stated at the beginning of this article, Christian stewardship is very different from fund raising, but of course it does say something very important about money. Will not God call us to account for what we have done with our money? And if we can pass the money test, will it not say something about the character of our life, and whether or not it is Christian at all?

For a Christian is distinguished by being someone who carries with them a sense of indebtedness, whose life is lived as a response to the generosity of God. And what about each of us? Freely we have received: freely give. ☩

Health Ministry Program Scheduled for October 14

The Health Ministry Team encourages you to learn more about organ donation by attending a program on Wednesday, October 14. You are invited to come at 6:45 p.m. for healthy refreshments. The program begins at 7:00 p.m. in Fellowship Hall.

Leading the program will be Tom Neal from Nebraska Organ Recovery. He will give a 20-minute presentation with a Q & A session afterward.

Would You Like to be Part of a Fall Craft Fair Here at Saint Paul UMC?

Saint Paul UMC is looking for crafters and direct sales for our Fall Craft Fair on Saturday, November 21, from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. We are offering spots for $30 per table. Electricity is included if needed, and the fee includes a light lunch for you.

We will be advertising throughout our church congregation, the Benson Beat Newsletter, Country Club Neighborhood Newsletters and well as our own newsletter and childcare news. We will also create a Facebook event for friends and families to join and share.

If you have any questions regarding the event or if you would like to have a registration form, please contact Katy Smith at 402-556-3885, or email at ksmith@stpaulomaha.org.

October is Breast Cancer Month

Breast Cancer is the most diagnosed cancer amongst women, affecting one of every 8 women in the US. The disease can also affect men which is about 2% of the male population. Early detection is very important.

In the past several years there has been a lot of confusion about getting mammograms for early detection. Mammograms do not find every cancer, especially if small or occurring on the outer side of the breasts. Mammograms are still recommended every year for woman 40 years or older or younger if there is a history of breast cancer in the family.

The most common symptom of breast cancer is feeling a lump in the breasts. This is why it is so important to do monthly breast palpitations around the time of the menstrual cycle or if the woman has gone through menopause, the palpating for lumps should be scheduled a specific date every month, like on your birthday. Other possible symptoms of breast cancer include swelling of all or part of a breast, skin irritation or dimpling, breast or nipple pain;, nipple retraction (turning inward), redness, scaliness, or thickening of the nipple, and nipple discharge.

Most of these symptoms occur after the breast cancer has spread within the breast. If the breast cancer has spread to the lymph nodes, swelling and pain can occur. Swollen lymph nodes should always be reported to your physician. This is why early detection is so important. Women are now being so aware of their breasts that early detection is occurring, which results in early treatment and better outcomes. Women are living much longer with breast cancer. The American Cancer Society has a lot of materials on breast cancer; search cancer.org.
