

New Community Counselor at St. Paul

St. Paul's new Community Counselor is Tabitha Jameson, who joins Julie Lord in the St. Paul counseling office. Both Tabitha and Julie divide their time between Omaha Public School counseling offices and their office at St. Paul.

Tabitha Jameson, MA, LIMHP, is a Licensed Independent Mental Health Practitioner working with Methodist Hospital Community Counseling program. She has been counseling in the Omaha area for the past 8 years. Her experiences include individual and family counseling at Capstone Behavioral Health for 5 years and working with adults with major mental illness at Community Alliance for 3 years. She deeply enjoys getting to be involved in people's personal stories and healing. Her specialties include working with persons with depression, anxiety, family and marital problems, and doing faith-based counseling.
